BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

SAM PRESTI

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Sam Presti enters his 15th season with the Oklahoma City Thunder franchise after being named the 11th General Manager in club history on June 7, 2007 at 29 years old, making him the second-youngest person to ever hold the position in NBA history. Presti remains the ninth youngest and also the third-most tenured head of basketball operations in the NBA.

A year into his tenure with the Thunder, Presti was promoted to Executive Vice President and General Manager by Professional Basketball Club Chairman, Clayton I. Bennett. Presti and Bennett represent the second-longest pairing for a Governor of an NBA team and head of basketball operations.

Presti and his staff have watched the Thunder amass the second-best record in the NBA since the start of 2009. After advancing to the 2020 Playoffs, the Thunder became one of just three teams (Boston and San Antonio) to reach the postseason 10 times during the prior 11 seasons. Under Presti's guidance, the Thunder has captured five Northwest Division Championships and reached the Conference Finals four times, including the team's trip to the NBA Finals in 2012. From 2009-2019, the Thunder averaged the second-best net rating (+4.6) and had the third-most seasons with a net rating of +6.0 or more behind only San Antonio and Golden State.

Throughout his tenure, Presti has led with a method of consistent philosophies and values while using diverse roster building techniques to sustain several cycles of the Thunder. This past summer was highlighted by signing Shai Gilgeous-Alexander to a multi-year contract extension and drafting Josh Giddey with the No. 6 overall pick in the NBA draft.

Continuing to reposition the franchise after a decade-plus of high performance, prior to the start of the 2020-21 season Presti and the Thunder executed trades 11 trades with 15 different teams, marking the most activity for a team in a single offseason since the advent of the NBA Draft Lottery in 1985. Entering the 2021-22 season Presti and the Thunder have amassed a total of 19 first-round and 15 second-round picks to accompany three first round pick swaps over the next seven years.

Following the 2018-19 season, Presti began repositioning and replenishing the franchise with a series of moves, acquiring Chris Paul, Shai Gilgeous Alexander, Danilo Gallinari, eight first round draft picks and four pick swaps in separate deals involving Paul George, Russell Westbrook and Jerami Grant. In the George deal alone, the Thunder acquired five first round picks, a record for first round picks to come back in a single trade. This new version of the Thunder again made the playoffs in 2019, earning the fifth seed in the Western Conference as Presti finished second in Executive of the Year voting.

Throughout his time leading the Thunder's basketball operations efforts, Presti and his staff have enjoyed success with respect to the NBA Draft, beginning with the 2007 selection of Kevin Durant with the second overall pick. Presti went on to draft Russell Westbrook and Serge Ibaka in 2008 with the fourth and 24th selections, before taking James Harden with the third overall pick in 2009. The selections of Durant, Westbrook and Harden marked the only time in NBA history where future MVPs were selected by the same GM in three consecutive drafts. Presti and his staff have also been able to pick key contributors throughout the draft as evident by selecting Reggie Jackson 24th in 2011, Steven Adams 12th and Andre Roberson 26th in 2013 and Domantas Sabonis 11th in 2016.

After acquiring six-time All-Star Paul George in a landmark trade from the Indiana Pacers in June of 2017, George then signed a multi-year deal with the Thunder in the summer of 2018. This occurred the offseason after the Thunder signed Westbrook in September of 2017 to his third multi-year contract extension with the team. George and Westbrook are two of the 10 players Presti and his front office have either drafted or traded for who have All-Star appearances (Durant, Westbrook, Harden, Victor Oladipo, Sabonis, George, Anthony, Paul and Horford and Kemba Walker). During Presti's tenure, the Thunder also has the most First and Second Team All-NBA appearances of any team in the NBA (17).

With Presti at the helm, the Thunder advanced to the postseason five straight years (2010-14) and at the conclusion 2012-13 season, Oklahoma City became just the second team in NBA history (Boston Celtics; 1955-60) to increase its winning percentage for five consecutive seasons while maintaining a winning percentage of .700 or better in two of those seasons.

Dating back to the 2011-12 season, the Thunder became Western Conference Champions on the heels of the 2010-11 season in which the Thunder became the youngest team in the prior quarter century to reach the NBA's Western Conference Finals.

During the 2009-10 season, Oklahoma City experienced one of the largest turnarounds in NBA history. A year after winning 23 games, the Thunder concluded the 2009-10 season with a 50-32 record (.610) and captured the franchise's first playoff berth in Oklahoma City. The 27-win improvement was tied for the eighth-largest improvement in NBA history. Presti was named NBA Executive of the Year by Sporting News at the conclusion of the season.

During his stint in OKC, Presti has hired three head coaches. Scott Brooks (2011) and Billy Donovan (2020) both earned Coach of the Year honors during their time with the Thunder, and Mark Daigneault, who was hired prior to the start of the 2020-21 season, is the first person in league history to be promoted from the head coach of the organization's G-League head coach to the franchise's NBA head coach role.

Over the last 10 years, the Thunder, along with the Spurs, have produced the most front office members who have become general managers, as Rich Cho, Rob Hennigan, Michael Winger and Troy Weaver were all hired from the Thunder into the role.

Since moving to Oklahoma City in July of 2008, Presti has stressed the importance of community involvement for both Thunder players and staff. Under his leadership, Thunder players have made more than 2,500 community appearances in and around Oklahoma City. Presti has also made it policy for every new player and staff member to tour the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum soon after joining the organization. Presti has also fostered staff wellness through the Thunder's long-standing work with the University of Pennsylvania, who is the leader in the areas of resilience and optimism training.

At the request of former NBA Commissioner David Stern and then Deputy Commissioner Adam Silver, Presti was named to the league's first-ever Competition Committee in May of 2012. During his term, which concluded prior to the 2018-19 season, Presti was a part of the committee that enacted several rule changes, such as concussion protocol, a package of rules to increase game flow, player rest policies, anti-flopping rules, deliberate away-from-the-play fouls, modifications to playoff seeding, qualification and tie-breakers, and adjustments to the NBA Finals scheduling format.

Additionally, Presti was asked to serve on the NBA's Instant Replay Committee in 2009, which helped to lay the groundwork for rules changes that the Competition Committee would later make regarding instant replay expansion and the expanded use of the replay center. Presti is currently part of the General Manager Sub-Committee which was designed to help identify opportunities to enhance the future of the NBA.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Presti held a variety of roles with the San Antonio Spurs. After starting in 2000 as a video intern for Gregg Popovich, Presti moved up through the front office ranks under the leadership of R.C. Buford before being elevated to the position of Vice President and Assistant General Manager. As a member of the Spurs, Presti was part of NBA Championship teams in 2003, 2005 and 2007, as well as five division titles.

Presti earned his bachelor's degree in 2000 in communications, politics and law with a minor in psychology from Emerson College in Boston, where he was the first Rhodes Scholar nominee in school history. The Concord, Mass. native served as team captain of the Emerson College basketball team during both his junior and senior seasons. In addition, Presti earned All-Academic honors two times and was twice selected to the Great Northeast Athletic Conference All-Tournament team.

He was honored with the Emerson College Young Alumnus Award in 2005. Presti has also completed Harvard University's Continuing Education program on leadership and decision-making.

Consistent with his organizational commitment to community involvement, Presti has been equally supportive of several worthy causes in his personal life.

Recently, Presti was elected as a member of the Executive Committee at the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum after previously serving on the Board of Trustees. While on the Board, Presti helped lead the Memorial's Oklahoma Standard campaign, a movement built on the foundation of resilience, compassion, consistent acts of honor, service and kindness.

In June of 2019, the Presti family became significant benefactors to the Children's Hospital at OU Medicine, as their contributions provided renovations and upgrades to two procedure rooms at the Jimmy Everest Center for Cancer and Blood Disorders for Children and the Bone Marrow Transplant Unit at The Children's Hospital. The renovations were unveiled this past winter. The Presti's philanthropy also contributed to a significant construction project in the east lobby of The Children's Center. Renamed the "Presti Clubhouse", the east lobby now provides a nurturing and interactive space for children and their parents.

During July 2020, Presti and his high school teammate, friend and CAA Sports executive Mike Johnson launched the Thunder Fellows Program, a partnership between the Thunder and CAA Sports intended to unlock new opportunities in sports, technology and entertainment for Black students in the Tulsa area. Located in the Historic Greenwood District of Tulsa, the curriculum offered through the Thunder Fellows Program aims to close these gaps and increase the odds of high school and college completion through mentorship, skill development, and the provision of practical experience. Students are exposed to a variety of disciplines within Thunder basketball operations, where they will work on real-world projects for the organization.

Presti recently led a fundraising initiative to establish a scholarship in honor of Mike Brown at his alma mater, Emerson College. The scholarship will support incoming students from historically underserved and underrepresented backgrounds with financial need.

Since 2011 Presti has impacted the lives of over 500 students who have gone through his Forward Thinking Leadership Development Program. In partnership with Oklahoma City Public Schools, the program aims to help the next generation of youth in the local community. Starting in 2019, Presti incorporated UPenn and their standard bearing resilience and optimism training for the students who are part of the Forward Thinking group.

Through the years, Presti has been involved with PeacePlayers International (PPI), a global outreach program focused on bringing children and communities together through the game of basketball. In 2018, Presti brought PPI together with the Oklahoma City Police Athletic League and made a significant donation to help the two parties develop programs together to foster positive relations with youth and law enforcement.

This past September Oklahoma City University announced the induction of Presti into the Oklahoma Commerce and Industry Hall of Honor which recognizes business and community leaders who have made significant contributions to the growth and development of Oklahoma. Financial support for the Hall of Honor provides scholarships for students at OCU's Meinders School of Business.

In 2016, Presti was awarded the Humanitarian Award from the Oklahoma Center for Community and Justice thanks to his work in the area of diversity and inclusion in the workplace. He was bestowed the honor of the 2016 Oklahoman of the Year by Oklahoma Magazine. Presti was recognized as Oklahoma City University's 2012-13 recipient of the Abe Lemons/Paul Hansen Award for Sports Excellence and he also won the Oklahoma March of Dimes Sports Headliner Special Award for 2013.

A skilled drummer, Presti has produced three music CDs with all proceeds benefiting the Extra Ordinary Needs Fund at Children's Hospital in Boston. Also, Presti established the Keenan Smith-Anthony Halls Scholarship Fund at his former high school, Concord-Carlisle, to assist underserved students with their college tuition.

Presti and his wife, Shannon, have a son, Nicholas and twin daughters, Millie and Elise. Shannon serves as the Teen Leadership Initiatives Coordinator for the YMCA of Greater Oklahoma City.

RUMBLE'S STORY:

This tale has been told around campfires for hundreds of years. A great herd of American bison was lost in the Arbuckle Mountains during a ferocious storm – the kind only Oklahoma can produce.

Hail fell and tornadoes spun all around the herd as they stampeded, trying to find their way down to the safety of the plains.

One lone bison stayed behind as he helped each of his friends escape down a treacherous ravine. Once all of his friends were safe, he began his descent only to find his way blocked by fallen boulders.

Lost, he climbed to the tallest peak; left to face the storm alone and searching for a way down the mountain, he was struck by a bolt of lightning.

The bolt did not destroy him, but, by the power of the god of thunder, changed him. Suddenly, he walked on two legs like a man. He possessed amazing strength and agility – he could jump higher, run faster, think more clearly than any beast.

But because he was no longer just a bison – and yet not a man – he was alone.

With many sightings, the legend grew through the years, of a mighty bison, with remarkable powers, roaming the hills alone.

Not until a group of men who carried similar powers came to Oklahoma City did he find somewhere he belonged. These men also possessed the power to jump higher, run faster, and perform acrobatic dunks more spectacular than anyone in the land. They too carried the roar of Thunder every time they took to the court.

So, he joined their team, and the new legend of Rumble was born.

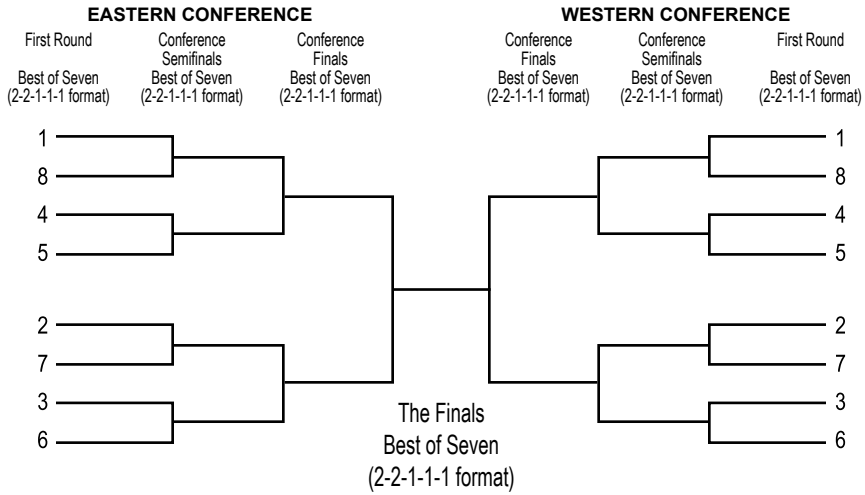
2021 NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE/ATTENDANCE

2020 NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE



Eight teams from each conference qualify for the NBA Playoffs. The three division winners and the team with the next-best record from each conference will receive the top four seeds and will be ranked Nos. 1-4 according to their regular-season records. The remaining four teams in each conference will be seeded 5-8 according to their won-lost records. The Play-In Tournament will determine the teams that will fill the seventh and eighth playoff seeds in each conference. The Play-In Tournament, which will take place after the regular season and before the first round of the playoffs, will include the teams with the seventh-highest through the tenth-highest winning percentages in each conference. In each round of the playoffs, the team with the better regular-season won-lost record gets the home-court advantage. All rounds of the playoffs are a best-of-seven series. Each best-of-seven series will play 2-2-1-1-1 format.

THUNDER ION

POWERED BY OU Health

The Oklahoma City Thunder began calling the Thunder ION home just prior to the start of the 2011-12 season. The 53,000 square foot state-of-the-art practice facility features two full-sized basketball courts, a 27-seat team classroom and a hydrotherapy area which was designed to benefit the Thunder's medical and training staff in the prevention and rehabilitation of injuries.

Funding for the construction of the practice facility and renovations to the team's Chesapeake Energy Arena comes from a one-cent sales tax approved by Oklahoma City voters on March 4, 2008. The 15-month tax took effect on January 1, 2009 and ran through March 31, 2010. As part of the lease agreement, the Thunder will make an annual rent payment to the City of Oklahoma City.

During the groundbreaking ceremony in August of 2009, Oklahoma City Mayor Mick Cornett commented, "Having the Thunder in Oklahoma City has been a tremendous sense of pride for our community. When the citizens of Oklahoma City passed the Big League City initiative to renovate the city's downtown arena and build an NBA-leading practice facility, we all looked forward to this day."
